The Atlantic City Business and Professional Women's Club of the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women's Clubs Inc. hosted the Mid-Atlantic Business Women's Membership Conference Oct. 25 at the Clarion Hotel in Egg Harbor Township. Business and professional women from across the mid-Atlantic region attended. A buffet followed business seminars that were held in the morning. Dr. Linda Stanley of the Reliance Medical Group served as the keynote speaker.

Also in attendance were former Pleasantville High School principal and city councilwoman Anne Smith, who is president of the local chapter, and Sherelle T. Carper, mid-Atlantic district governor.
